EAF MEMBER APPLICATION PROVISION

We hereby acknowledge that the information and data provided in the EAF publications is confidential and trade secret information that is owned solely and exclusively by EAF. In consideration for EAF's approval of our application and our access to the confidential and trade secret information provided in the publications, we, as an applicant for membership, hereby agree to hold such information in the strictest confidence, and not to disclose to any third party person, firm or corporation, either in writing or orally, without the express written authorization of EAF, any of the confidential information or trade secrets, or otherwise use this information in such a way that may destroy the confidentiality or secrecy of this information.

We acknowledge that EAF authorizes us, as a member, to provide the EAF publications to certain third parties that may be hired for services relating to the operation of our business. We understand these third parties may use EAF's confidential and trade secret information in performing services for our organization only.

We recognize we are required to notify the third party that the EAF confidential and trade secret information shall be used only for services provided by the third party to us, and the third party shall not disclose such information to any other person. We understand that we are not permitted to copy the EAF publications. We acknowledge responsibility for obtaining from the third party any EAF publications we provided the third party in performance of their services.

I also understand that by providing my mailing address, email address, telephone number, and fax number, I consent to receive member communications via regular mail, email, telephone, and/or fax sent by or on behalf of EAF.
